Ms. Duarte-White has a clear understanding of the dynamic forces impacting non-profit management her 17 years of non-profit management experience led to the formation of Provision Services, which was launched in 2003. Throughout a significant history of resource development, organizational planning and capacity building she has developed major annual/capital campaigns, marketing and accreditation strategies, membership drives and organizational learning systems for national non-profit organizations.

Ms. Duarte-White's program development experience includes issues such as advocacy, AIDS, cultural arts, conservation, health, research, workforce, social service, education and economic development. Ms. Duarte developed fundraising and marketing strategies to identify and reach new markets, built critical alliances through program development among worlds of philanthropy, governmental agencies and non-profit organizations. Ms. Duarte led critical internal staff development processes to build the capacity and infrastructure of major non-profit organizations.

As an executive officer and member of the management team, Ms. Duarte was responsible for program administration meeting and exceeding all contract performance requirements for major non-profit corporations, with budgets exceeding $8 million dollars. The corporations consisted of two or more major divisions-contract performance was exceeded in consecutive years. As a member of the Knowledge Team and in her role as lead facilitator of Employee University, (LA City & County WorkSource Centers) and a member of the senior management team, she developed curriculum and provided instruction to build skills and staff competencies creating

Ms. Duarte created a human service delivery system, Provision Supplies, located in Whittier, CA in 2003. Provision Supplies is certified by the State Food & Drug Branch, Department of Health Services and an authorized Medicare Services provider offering quality home healthcare products that contribute to an independent lifestyle for underserved individuals; making a difference in the quality of life of those served.

Ms. Duarte has served as an officer of the ELA Chamber of Commerce for four years, a director of the Mexican American Historical Foundation for as many years and has recently been appointed to the Los Angeles County Commission of Historical Landmarks & Records.
